

Addendum #1 to Request for Proposal (RFP) #2509
Bond Project Coordinator
Issue Date: September 18, 2025

TO: All Offerors of Record

The College offers the following clarifications, modifications, additions and information:

1. Clarification: All addendum will be issued on the college's Procurement Services website at <https://go.chemeketa.edu/procurement> under "Bid Opportunities"

2. Question: Is there is a recommended or required page limitation for the proposal submission?

Response: Your response must be font size 12 or larger and be contained in a document not to exceed 30, single-sided pages, including pictures, charts, graphs, tables and text the firm deems appropriate to be part of the review of the firm's response. The 30-page limit does not include the Proposer's response to "Attachment B RFP 2509 Project Management Information Systems Implementation/Owners Representative Technical Assistance Proposal" or any exceptions taken to sample Contract. Resumes of key individuals proposed to be involved in this project are exempted from the 30-page limit and should be appended to the end of your response. Appended resumes of the proposed key individuals, along with a transmittal letter, table of contents, front and back covers, and blank section/numerical dividers, etc., will not be counted in the 30-page limit.

3. Question: Is there a file size limit such as less than 20MB that should be adhered to in order to process successfully through the college email system?

Response: The college email system will accept documents up to 20MG in size, but they may take longer to filter through the system. Please bear this in mind when submitting a proposal.

4. Question: Page 12, #21, 22, 24b- clarification- Do we prepare a fee schedule for the outlined categories for a period of 1 year only, from October 2025 through October 2026? This fee will then be renewed for up to four additional years with CPI? Page 20, #1(f)(iii) states "Annual fee anticipated for up to three years" this is where there is a bit of confusion.

Response: The intention of the college is for the Proposer to provide only the year one annual fee. After year one the fee can be renegotiated, but the cap on any increase will be the CPI. There may be less work year over year therefore based on the amount of work required annually, the fee could be reduced.

Revision: PART VI: Proposal Content and Analysis, 1) Content of the Proposal Shall Include, f) iii) is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following: "Annual fee anticipated for year one of the Contract;".

5. Question: Page 21 of the RFP, Item "c" states "interviews... may be held...", Page 22 of the RFP, under Item 3) states in the opening paragraph... "shall be asked to attend an interview..." Please clarify.

Response: It is the college's intention to reserve the right to hold interviews, but not require interviews.

Revision: Attachment A RFP 2509 Project Management Information Systems

Implementation/Owners Representative Technical Assistance Analysis Sheet, 3) Rating Categories, paragraph 1, is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

Each proposal shall be evaluated on a point system. The importance of each item is expressed as the total number of points allowed for the item. The decision of the committee shall be final. Those firms considered to be the most qualified may be asked to attend an interview with the selection committee. All aspects of the proposal and the work, including fees, may be discussed during the interview process.

6. Question: Page 22, #3(e) Cost Proposal- Should the fee calculations be scored on a median basis obtains the highest score and derivatives off that score up and down to eliminate competition low balling the process?

Response: Points will be award based on the Total Fee for year one of the Contract which shall include (PMIS Implementation Fee + Year One of the Owners Representative Technical Assistance Fee + Reimbursable Fee). Points for Cost will be awarded as follows:

(A/B) multiplied by N

A = Cost of lowest proposal, B = Cost of proposal being scored, N = Number of Cost points available

Example	Implementation	Tech Assist	Reimburable	Total	Points
Proposer #1	$ 10,000.00	$50,000.00	$ 2,500.00	$ 62,500.00	15.76
Proposer #2	$ 9,000.00	$45,000.00	$ 1,500.00	$ 55,500.00	17.75
Proposer #3	$ 10,500.00	$60,000.00	$ 1,000.00	$ 71,500.00	13.78
Proposer #4	$ 12,500.00	$35,000.00	$ 1,750.00	$ 49,250.00	20

7. Questions: For the PMIS, are you open to using systems other than Smartsheet?
Can you explain how you are currently using Smartsheet as the PMIS?
In the Scope and Statement of Work section of the RFP, it mentions using Smartsheet alternatives. By “alternatives” do you mean you are open to using other PMIS platforms?
The RFP references Smartsheet multiple times as the PMIS solution. Could you please confirm whether Smartsheet is a mandatory requirement, or whether Chemeketa will consider proposals offering alternative PMIS platforms if they meet or exceed the stated functional needs (workflows, dashboards, reporting, compliance, etc.)?

Response: Smartsheet is not a mandatory requirement. The college has not set up a PMIS platform for the entire bond program therefore we are open to using other PMIS platforms as long as they meet or exceed the functional needs. Smartsheet is currently being used by the project manager on the Building 7 Renovation Project.

8. Question: Owner’s Representative / Project Manager Services (Part V, Section 3)
These services are described as “as requested” with no guarantee of engagement. Could Chemeketa clarify under what circumstances the College anticipates using the Owner’s Representative role, and how frequently these services might be required during the Bond Program?

Response: The college may choose to use this option on the Trades Center, Building 3 Remodel, and the Building 2 Remodel, but those decisions have not been finalized.

9. Questions: Technical Assistance Level of Effort (Part V, Section 4)

The scope outlines a wide range of technical assistance (e.g., contract reviews, CM/GC support, Smartsheet modifications). Could Chemeketa provide an estimated annual level of effort (e.g., hours or number of projects) to guide proposers in developing a realistic pricing model?

Bond Project Prioritization (Part V, Section 1)

The RFP identifies several major projects (CTI Building, Building 2 and 3 Remodels, Woodburn Science, deferred maintenance). Has Chemeketa established a priority sequence or timeline for these projects, or should proposers assume concurrent planning and scheduling?

Response: Refer to the attached “CCC DW SCH Project Waterfall Schedule Draft 2025-0623” which is a clearer copy of page 19 of the RFP. This is the most up to date information on the project schedule.

10. Question: System Integration (Part V, Section 2 – Finance & Procurement Workflows)

The scope mentions flowcharting financial, procurement, and reporting workflows. Could Chemeketa identify which existing financial, ERP, or procurement systems the PMIS will need to integrate with?

Response: The college does not wish to integrate the PMIS with the current Banner/Ellucian ERP.

11. Question: Cost Proposal – Reimbursables (Part VI, Section 1.f)

The proposal requires both an annual fee and a not-to-exceed amount for Owner’s Rep/Technical Assistance, along with reimbursables. Should travel and other reimbursable expenses be included in the not-to-exceed fee, or will they be billed separately under the reimbursables category?

Response: Travel and other reimbursable expenses will be billed separately under the reimbursables category. They are not part of the not-to-exceed amount.

12. Question: Indemnity is drafted without reference to causation, i.e. to the extent something is caused by the Contractor. This broad language can result in liability to the Contractor for parties it does not control and liability it cannot insure against. Will the College entertain modification to this provision

Response: Yes, the college will entertain a modification to this provision.

13. Question: The insurance provisions require an endorsement regarding notice from the carrier to the College for cancellation, non-renewal or material change. If carriers are unwilling to provide such endorsement, will the College accept notice from the Contractor?

Response: No, the endorsement needs to come from the carrier.

14. Question: If a company has a professional liability deductible in excess of $10,000, will the College consider approval of such upon a showing of the insured’s financial responsibility?

Response: Yes, the college would consider such approval.

15. Questions: Is this a new Smartsheet deployment or an enhancement of an existing environment and will the College provide existing templates, dashboards, or workflows, or should the contractor assume a full build-out?

Response: This is a new PMIS deployment and the contractor should assume a full build-out.

16. Question: Which departments or teams will use Smartsheet, and what are their key use cases and how many college staff are expected to be advanced users?

Response: The college anticipates that Capital Projects/Facilities, Business Services, and the Budget & Finance departments and a few contractors will use the PMIS. There may be approximately 10 to 15 users. Proposers should offer a solution that they feel best addresses the needs of the project.

- 17. Questions: Will the College purchase Smartsheet enterprise licenses, or should the contractor include them in the fee proposal? Are premium features (e.g., Control Center, Resource Management, Dynamic View) expected to be used, and are they already licensed?

Response: The college does not currently possess any PMIS license(s), but the college will be responsible for the PMIS licensing.

- 18. Question: Does the College prefer a centralized workspace or distributed sheet architecture? Are there specific data governance or access control requirements (e.g., row-level security, restricted views)?

Response: Proposers should offer a solution that they feel best addresses the needs of the project.

- 19. Question: Are there existing systems (e.g., Workday, MS Project, other internal platforms) that need to be integrated or migrated into Smartsheet and are there third-party systems required for contract management integration?

Response: An existing system requiring third-party integration doesn't exist at the college.

- 20. Question: Will vendors need access to Smartsheet, and what roles or permissions should they have?

Response: The college assumes a few contractors will need access to the PMIS. Permissions would be determined based on the roles contractors are performing.

- 21. Question: Are there reporting or audit requirements tied to vendor contracts?

Response: There are none imposed by the college.

- 22. Question: Will internal stakeholders be available for feedback and testing during each phase and is training or change management support expected during rollout?

Response: Internal stakeholders will be available for feed back and training and change management support is expected during rollout.

- 23. Question: Will dashboards be public-facing for community transparency or internal-only and will Smartsheet and project data be hosted on College-controlled accounts or contractor-managed initially?

Response: Dashboards will not be public-facing, the college will address public information outside of the PMIS. Project data will be hosted on college-controlled accounts.

- 24. Questions: Will our role in procurement be advisory only, or will the contractor have authority for RFIs, change orders, and payment applications? Are there existing procurement systems or templates we should be prepared to work within?

Response: The procurement role will not be advisory only. There are existing procurement contract and solicitation templates. Proposers should offer a solution that they feel best addresses the needs of the project.

25. Question: Is on-site staffing required for implementation, or is a hybrid/remote model acceptable? What are the expectations for reporting frequency, performance metrics, and committee engagement?

Response: A hybrid/remote implementation model is acceptable. Proposers should offer a solution that they feel best addresses the needs of the project.

Acknowledgement of receipt of all addenda issued must be noted either with the submission of your response to the RFP or separately prior to the public opening of the RFP.
